Peter Jungen at Conference Institute for Economic Thinking

A meeting was initiated on 10 April 2010 at the Conference Institute for Economic Thinking, Cambridge, United Kingdom. The discussion was about "The consequences of Inequality and Wealth Distribution" where economists, academics stated their point of view. The topic tried to find the solution for the current situation, in which the booming stock markets, giant mergers and financial speculation reward only a certain minority and the majority of the people are not enjoying much benefit. This problem is real obstacle for SMEs also who should often compete with big companies which make them difficult to get benefits. SME UNION has engaged in reducing the inequalities and help small businesses' success.
